Personnel

Each QTI representative is matched precisely to our client's requirements. Prior to important events and conventions, QTI conducts in-house training, to ensure our staff provide the highest level of service.

Our interpreters have a professional approach and appearance and are well aware of the discretion demanded of their role.

Services

- Consecutive Interpreting
- Simultaneous Interpreting
- Russian to English translation
- English to Russian translation

Quality Assurance

Our interpreter/translator selection process ensures that our people deliver the service we guarantee.

At larger events, senior QTI representatives will be on-hand to monitor performance to make sure quality service is maintained and any client requests can be addressed swiftly.

Strengths

- Optimum Quality
- Experience
- Professionalism
- Discretion

Why QTI?

We provide responsive, high-quality service to our customers

We identify, recruit, develop, and retain top talent

We provide full transparency. At the conclusion of a contract, our representatives take part in a “customer satisfaction report” with both the client and a senior staff member to ensure the client’s requirements have been fully met.

Performance Measures

- Repeat clients
- Internal quality control (interpretation and translation)
- Challenged/enthusiastic/engaged employees
- Annual sales and earning growth
